To Whom It May Concern:

What's the big deal? I'm seventy-five years old, have smoked since I was eighteen, and I have NO health problems! I repeat: What's the big deal?

I'm a smoker who objects to your plan to ban smoking in all public places. Of all the outlandish attempts by a governmental agency!! American is a FREE country, smokers should be able to smoke as they desire, and I am a firm believer in exercising my rights! I've had lots of experience in this life and this country, and I strongly feel that smoking is an individual's right of choice.

Each person has to control his or her personal life... that's freedom of choice. Stop grandstanding, get down to basics, and ask yourself: What's the big deal?

Sincerely,

Claire Fels
